PHARAONS INTERNATIONAL CROSS COUNTRY RALLY

September 29th – October 8th, 2006

At its ninth edition, the Pharaons International Cross Country Rally is assessed to be the most complete, varied and appealing FIA World Cup and FIM World Championship race.

JVD International, the Italy-Belgium organization has grown up the Pharaons along these nine years to an outstanding level, as confirmed by the flattering international sport authorities reports on last edition.

A great acknowledgement for our unique race, run along one of the most beautiful deserts of the world, where sport perfectly joins history, art and Egyptian culture.

The rally routes traced by the skilled hand of Jacky Ickx - live celebrity of motor sport, are never boring and mix impressive landscapes to a right degree of difficulties, able to make the champion happy as well as the easy amateur.

"To come with us in Egypt does not give you only desert emotions, but will also be a discovery of remote villages close to precious unexplored archeological sites: a modern country which keeps its unharmed ancient charm, a feature among the most amazing in the world".

This is Jacky's thought, being himself in love since nine years with the Egyptian desert, where the new route of 2006 edition will take form in few weeks.

Not yet confident? Here you go with ten good reasons to participate to the 2006 Pharaons

The Pharaons International Cross Country Rally is the FIA World Cup and FIM World Championship race:

1. with the minimum cost/leg
2. with the lengthiest Selective Sectors, almost three thousand kilometers along the most beautiful desert
3. with the shortest transfers as almost all selective sectors start and end at the bivouac
4. with the most varied and technical route, through the ever-changing landscapes of the Egyptian desert
5. with an efficient organization always friendly and careful with each pilot, was him the well assessed champion or the easy amateur
6. with high level bivouacs where great variety of meals are served able to fulfill all
7. with an extremely careful eye on safety, an efficient medical staff and several first aid vehicles, three helicopters, a truck-hospital, a mobile ambulance-nursery, 6 medical cars perfectly equipped
8. with the comfortable opportunity to find your own bike directly at the hotel, with no more custom issues left
9. with the comfort of four nights in 5 star hotel at the start and at the finish, in order to relax on the swimming pool once ended the race fatigues
10. with the great opportunity to join sport and culture, history and wonders of Egypt, Pyramids, Sphinx, Egyptian Museum, the chaotic and colorful bazaar of Cairo and ... much more.
